

NOTICE OF AMENDMENT

Amendment 12 to Singapore Airworthiness Requirements (SAR)

This amendment to the Singapore Airworthiness Requirements is issued in conjunction with Issue 2 of SAR-66 Aircraft Maintenance Licensing (see Notice of Amendment NA04-2006).

Changes to the Singapore Airworthiness Requirements are as follows:

- SAR Chapter 3.7: Amended to require persons authorised to perform compass swing to use their authorisation approval number instead of maintenance licence number.
- SAR Chapter 4.1: Amended to update relevant ANO reference and removed the requirement to submit modifications for the Authority's approval as this requirement is superseded by SAR-21.
- SAR Chapter 4.1: Amended to require persons authorised to issue certificates of Fitness for Flight to use their authorisation approval number instead of maintenance licence number.
Appendix 1
- SAR Chapter 4.1.1: Amended to update privileges of aircraft maintenance licence holder and their scope of responsibilities when authorised as certifying staff.
- SAR Chapter 4.3: Amended to update references to Certificate of Maintenance Review
- SAR Chapter 4.3: Amended and consolidated the requirements for certificates of Maintenance Review into one appendix (Appendix 1).
Appendix 1 and 1A

The updated Singapore Airworthiness Requirements are available on the CAAS website at <http://www.caas.gov.sg>

Singapore Airworthiness Requirements Amendment 12 becomes effective on 15 August 2006.
