

ISSUE 16

BRINGING THE WORLD CLOSER TO SINGAPORE'S ATTRACTIONS

Travellers will now have greater incentive to visit Singapore and experience its best attractions through the value-packed holiday deals offered by Singapore Airlines (SIA) and SilkAir, in partnership with Changi Airport Group (CAG). SIA and SilkAir customers can enjoy value-for-money hotel rates with Singapore Stopover packages, which go as low as S$60, bundled with complimentary airport and hotel transfers, unlimited rides on the SIA Hop-on Bus and complimentary admission to many of Singapore's major attractions.

"We hope that travellers will take up this fabulous package so that they will have a chance to sample Singapore's newest tourist attractions, as well as enjoy the premium experience that Changi Airport, Singapore Airlines and Silkair offer," said Lim ChingKiat, Senior Vice-President for Market Development, CAG.

The rates are valid for Singapore Stopover Holiday bookings to 28 March 2012 and travel must be completed by 31 March 2012. Find out more about the Singapore Stopover Holiday packages now!